

FEATURE FILM JURY

Isa Qosja – Head of Jury

Isa Qosja (born in Vuthaj, Montenegro in 1949) is an Kosovar film director. After gymnasium he studied dramatic art and acting in faculty of Prishtina. After that he studied Academy of Film, Theater, Radio and Television in Belgrade.

Isa Qosja is the author of many artistic and documentary films, among the best known is "Proka" which has featured in many international festivals, including the RIFJ Cannes. His second feature film, "Rojat e Mjegullës" (Guards of Fog) (1988) dealt with the suffering and treatment of Albanians in time of the great communist repression.

In 2005 he directed Kukumi. In 2014 he directed "Tri Dritare dhe Nje Varje" (Three Windows and a Hanging), which became the first Kosovan film to be submitted for the Academy Award for Best Foreign Language Film.

FEATURE FILM JURY

Hans Kohl

Karafil Shena

